

THE DAILY STAR

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Creepeth slow to the reporter's table
And on the paste-potatoes a rueful glance;
"Alas!" he sighs, "I am no longer able
To exuberantly as of yore, and dance
The frolics which have knocked the stuff from my trotters.
Death slowly woos me with his magic spell;
I soon shall cross the dark and troubled waters—
Old Cockroach bids you a long, and farewell."

On Saturday Judge Longworth will sentence the prisoners who have been before him during the present month.

MR. CHARLES COLLINS, who attempted to cut his throat evening before last, is resting quietly and will doubtless soon recover.

COL. JOHN W. DUDLEY, formerly Chief of Police in this city, died night before last at his residence, No. 684 Freeman avenue, of paralysis.

MAGGIE POLMER, a sixteen-year-old girl, the daughter of Mr. George Polmer, was committed to the House of Refuge this morning on the charge of incorrigibility.

ANDREW BIZAR for October is a fine number and well worth a careful reading by all who would be thoroughly posted as to the fashions and well up in the society news of the day.

The annual fair of the North Georgia Stock and Fair Association commences at Atlanta on Monday, October 21st, at which it is expected that the business of Cincinnati will be well represented.

Two parties of bunnies came in contact on the Canal, between Main and Walnut streets, late last night and engaged in a rough and tumble fight, during which Pete Bender received a fearful gash in the head.

JAMES THOMPSON, who was struck on the head with a club by Michael Fay, last week, near the Gas-works, was reported to be dying at the Hospital this morning, and consequently a capias was issued for Fay, who was out on $500 bail, charged with assault and battery.

THOMAS JORDON, of this city, and property-man of the McWade Troupe, which played at Heuck's two weeks ago, was killed at Cincinnati yesterday while trying to jump on a passing train. The wheels passed over him, cutting him entirely in two. He was unmarried.

PROF. HARRY GILBERT, the aeronaut, who met with an accident at Indianapolis before yesterday, has written to his brother Lewis that his leg is broken below the knee, and that he can not leave for this city for two or three days. The wife of Prof. Gilbert left yesterday afternoon for Indianapolis.

The suit brought by Louise Lusk, administratrix of her husband, against the steamerboat Chas. Morgan was dismissed by Judge Swing yesterday. It was claimed by the wife that her husband while a passenger on the boat had fallen into the hatchway, which had been left open by carelessness, for which she claimed damages.

GEO. WAGNER and Ed. Spencer attempted a little game of swindling on Walnut Hills yesterday, but were intercepted before they had made any great progress. When caught they had a large bunch of tickets for a concert which they claimed was to be given at the Music Hall for the benefit of the Southern sufferers, but how many of them they had disposed of could not be ascertained. Their trial is set for October 9th.

The attention of Officer Joe Smith, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Children, was called to a four-year-old boy named Harry Weber, whose parents live at No. 22 Central avenue. Shortly after Harry's birth he was taken with scarlet fever, which rendered him totally blind, since which time he has been subject to abuse by his stepfather, who will not allow him to live at home. Miss Emma Bannister, of West Eighth street, gave the child a temporary home, but the charge was too great, and Officer Smith was appealed to.

About midnight last night a cutting affray took place on Lodge alley between a couple of young colored men named Lee Webb and Randall Watson, who had been paying court to the same girl, Webb, the assaulter, who received a severe laceration in the cheek, from which he bled profusely before his wound could be dressed and he be taken to the hospital. Watson after a lively chase caught by Officers Sellers and Dunn and taken to the Central station, where the charge of cutting with intent to kill was placed against him. He will be tried October 11th.

The October meeting of the Society of Natural History was held last evening, and after the election of Dr. P. Kehler, Robert Salter and Edward M. Cooper to membership Prof. Weatherly gave an interesting description of the fossils and rocks near the High Bridge on the Southern road, which led to a discussion of the subject by other members present. The following donations were announced: Twenty specimens of Waverly group fossils, by Prof. J. W. Hall; one eight-legged antlion, by Dr. Chas. Reed; thirty-three historical slides, by F. Eckstein; three slides of diatoms, by Dr. F. Hunt; two specimens of skins of dendroeca rivens, by Chas. Dury; one tortoise shell and part of Bible in some language unknown to the wise men present, by W. N. Baldwin, and various publications in exchange for the Society's "Journal."

Reception of Condon.
The Committee having charge of the reception of Edward O'Meara Condon, met last evening to complete the arrangements for the reception of the Irish patriot. Every department of the High-land House has been tendered the Committee, and it was decided to hold the reception at that place, commencing at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon and continuing until midnight.
During the evening Mr. Condon will be formally received by His Honor, the Mayor, who will accompany him to the city, after which Hon. J. W. Fitzgerald will deliver an address of welcome.
The Committee will hold another meeting Saturday evening to arrange for military escort.

Board of Steam Navigation.
At a meeting of the Board of Steam Navigation, at the office of the New Orleans Packet Company yesterday, R. S. Sample presiding, and Capt. W. B. Miller Secretary, it was "Resolved, That the Local Board of Steam Navigation of Cincinnati unanimously recommends to the National Board of Steam Navigation the postponement of the annual meeting of the National Board until September, 1879."
"Resolved, That the Treasurer collect all subscriptions made to the fund, and after paying expenses so far incurred, the balance of said fund be returned to each subscriber pro rata."

A communication inviting the Bund to participate in the festival to be given October 24th by the Cincinnati Liederkreis, was received and the invitation accepted. Adjourned.

Exposition Commissioners.
The National Exposition Board met last evening.
Mr. Pendleton reported an additional subscription of $500 from John Shillito, making his subscription thus far $1,000.
Mr. Lane suggested dollar subscriptions among the people, in order to raise the $40,000 necessary to run the Exposition of 1879.
Col. Lane was appointed a committee to draw up a subscription paper among his own employees, and a report to the Board at the next meeting.
Col. Robinson appointed Messrs. Dale and Pendleton as his associates to meet the Committee of the Board of Education in reference to the proposed school concert, and aid of the Exposition fund, and the Board then adjourned.

A Reporter in Trouble.

Officer Ramsey arrived last night from Detroit, bringing with him Wm. Reinegger, an alleged German reporter, and Lizzie Schwab, a fifteen-year-old girl, who had eloped from this city. Reinegger had abandoned his wife and family and was living with Lizzie at Detroit, where he had obtained work on a German newspaper.
This morning Reinegger and the mother of Lizzie were before the Chief, and during the interview the mother became excited and drew a cord which she had concealed under her shawl, with which she gave Reinegger several severe cuts about the head and face before she could be stopped. No charge was brought against the lovers this morning, but they will be kept locked up until to-morrow, when they will probably be brought to trial.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE FOLLY COMPANY.
"Our Cinderella," the new extravaganza, will be presented for the last time this evening. To-morrow (Friday) evening benefit of Miss Emma Rousseau, and production of "Babes in the Wood," which will be repeated for the Saturday matinee. Secure seats at Hawley's. The Folly Company is a favorite organization in this city, and draws fine houses night after night.

OTHER AMUSEMENTS.
The White House, over the Rhine, is doing a good business and is crowded nightly. The programme is lengthy and varied. Among the artists is Mr. Johnny Welsh, who delights the audience with his Irish specialties and dancing. The admission being free one might infer that the White House is an inferior place among the many over the Rhine resorts. Such is not the case. It is a legitimate variety theater and no disorderly conduct allowed. Give the White House a call.

LOOKOUT HOUSE.

At this house a good, interesting programme is promised for to-night's concert by the German Military Band. Some fine popular selections will be given, including the cornet solos by Mr. Rudolph Gewert. Among the numbers we also find two choice songs by Miss Emma Kuster, the young lady who has gained so much public favor during her engagement at this house.

EXCELLENT VARIETY ENTERTAINMENT at the Grand Central Theater.

Fisher, on the part of the Republicans, met yesterday, to arrange upon the part of Judges and Clerks of the election. They agreed to allow and assign the Judges for the several wards, precincts and townships upon the basis of the vote cast for Secretary of June in 1876.

THE MIDNIGHT MARAUDER should not be banished from our dwelling any more quickly than should a cough or cold of any kind be driven from the system. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup quietly yet positively places all colds under its control.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all of which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters, taken by my wife, who has done her own housework for a year since without the loss of a day, and I want every body to know it for their benefit."
JOHN WEEKS, Butler, N. Y."

J. Allen will open a dancing school Saturday, October 5th, at 3 and 7 p. m., at 28, 30 and 32 West Court street.

No Failure Known.

There is no case on record known where Dr. Morris' Syrup of Wild Cherry and Horehound has failed to give satisfaction. On the other hand, wherever it has been used by our people, in severe colds, coughs, asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and consumption, they are enthusiastic in its praise. Containing no opium or other dangerous drug, it does not constipate, and is safe to administer in all conditions of health. This is an important announcement, and the suffering are advised to heed it. Trial size, 10c; large sizes, 50c and $1.
Sold by John Keeshan, Sixth and Walnut streets; J. D. Wells, Fourth and Central avenue; H. F. Reum, Fifth and Broadway.

Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which is sure death to Worms. Pleasant to take and requires no physic. Price 25c. Try it.

Well Known.
